

Connect with Morgan McKinley on WeChat: Get the Latest Market Insights and Jobs on Your Mobile

Driven by technology advancement and the popularity of smart phones, WeChat has become an important communication tool socially and professionally and is the new way to connect.

At Morgan McKinley China, our aim is deliver the best candidate experience and by launching our WeChat account, we will be able to engage with you in 'real-time' and share relevant information.

By following our WeChat account, you will be part of an intimate but influential community and our members will receive updates on the latest industry trends, hot jobs and events but you can also directly contact our specialized recruitment consultants who will help you find your ideal role and provide career advice.

Please follow our official Morgan McKinley WeChat account by scanning the QR code below or search public account "morganmckinley" once you have downloaded the mobile app. Happy connecting!

